STANFORD, LINCOLN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1911

EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY

BURLARS BUSY IN STANFORD AGAIN

Store of George H. Farris Entered, and $3 Secured—Intruder Visits Cook Home.

Burglars have been busy in Stanford again the past week, and housekeepers are keeping things locked tight nowadays and sleeping with pistols under their pillows.

The grocery store of George H.
Farris was entered and robbed early Wednesday morning, and that evening an intruder appeared at the home of Mrs. Lelia Cook on East Main street and badly frightened her young daughter, Miss Mary Shepherd Cook, who was alone in the house at the time.

The young thief, who effected an entrance into Farris' store is believed to be the same one who robbed Cummins & Wearden's dry goods store a few weeks ago. His pains at the latest scene of his crime were not so well rewarded for he only got $3 this time. A drummer sleeping in one of the rooms of the St. Asaph Hotel with a window on Somerset avenue, heard the thief at work on the side door through which entrance was effected into the basement of the store. He did not suspect anything however, and did not give an alarm. Mr. Farris had left his safe open with but the $3 in it, so that the thief had no trouble in getting it. He did not touch anything else in the store, and as in the Cummins & Wearden burglary, seemed to be after money alone. There are several clues to the identity of the young man who is doing this prowling at night and unless he is mighty careful in the future, he is going to find himself behind the bars.

The intruder at the Cook home, made his visit while Mrs. Cook was at prayer meeting and Miss Mary Shepherd Cook was at home studying her lessons. She heard the man come up from the cellar, but gave an alarm and neighbors quickly responding, he made himself very scarce, and could not be identified.

As usually treated, a sprained ankle will disable a man for three or four weeks, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment freely as soon as the injury is received, and observing the directions with each bottle, a cure can be effected in from two to four days. For sale by all dealers.

Rev. Jeffries preached to a large congregation at the Baptist church Sunday.

A. V. Horton is very sick at this writing.

Mrs. M. D. Wall, is convalescent.
R. J. Hogue bought of Will Horton, a mule for $100.

Some 35 pupils of the Pleasant Point school with their teacher E. G.
Gilliland enjoyed a day's ride Friday afternoon. They visited the King's Mountain graded school where they engaged in an old time spelling match the Pleasant Point school finding it an easy matter to win the laurels.

Gen. Private, of Bloomington, Ind., is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Nora Hayes and little daughter, Edna are with Mr. and Mrs. J. A.
Singleton for a few days.

Miss Maude Brown who is teaching the Edison school near Eubanks spent Sunday with home folks, says she is getting along nicely with her school.

Allen Gilliland and wife were visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Gilliland.
J. A. Dean, of Junction City, was the guest of James Grakin.

MAKES WORK EASY.

Stanford People Are Pleased To Learn How It Is Done.

It's pretty hard to attend to duties with a constantly aching back, with annoying urinary disorders.
Doan's Kidney Pills have made work easier, so thousands have gratefully testified. They're for back aches.
They're for weak kidneys. Stanford people gladly recommend Doan's.

Mrs. S. J. Hubbell, Lancaster St., Stanford, Ky., says: "I know that Doan's Kidney Pills helped me and I therefore, have not the least hesitation in recommending them. My kidneys were disordered for some time and although my condition was not serious, I was nevertheless annoyed a great deal. My back ached almost constantly and sometimes became so lame that it required a great effort for me to stoop. There were also other symptoms of kidney complaint that caused me distress. Since using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Shugars & Tanner's Drug Store, all these troubles have disappeared and my health has improved."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

JAMES A. BEAZLEY.

Set An Example in Lancaster Worthy of Emulation.

The Danville Messenger on Tuesday contained the following tribute to James A. Beazley, of Lancaster, a transplanted Lincolnite which will be appreciated by his many friends here. The Messenger says:

Mr. James A. Beazley, of Lancaster, was here yesterday mingling with the court day crowd. Mr.
Beazley is a candidate for county judge in Garrard, and knowing ones say he is a winner. Mr. Beazley is a gentleman in every thing the word implies, and if elected will give the people a clean administration. Several years ago Lancaster was honey combed with blind tigers. In fact they became so numerous that they were run as openly as a licensed saloon. Several officers were appointed, but the tiger continued to flourish like a green bay tree. Finally a number of the best citizens of the town held a meeting to devise ways and means to have the law enforced.

Many plans were suggested, but all had been tried and failed. Finally, some gentlemen arose and among other things, said: "Gentlemen, the time has come when some good citizen must take a sacrifice—must give up his business, accept the chief of police's place, risk his life and this evil can be stopped." For a time there was silence, but Mr. Beazley arose and said: "Well gentlemen, I realize, fully, that the tiger operators, and especially their backers, will not hesitate to kill any man who attempts to stop their nefarious business. I have a wife and several children, am a man of limited means but I am so anxious to see Lancaster wrested from this grip of lawlessness, and the destruction of the hell-pits, that I will accept the place for a short time." He took the place, appointed a good deputy—Mr. Pollard—and while many attempts were made to kill him, and desperados threatened him, he landed many tiger operators in jail and soon Lancaster was as dry as a powder horn. Mr. Pollard's deputy, was killed, however, one court day on the notorious "Battle Row."

Beazley soon had the town as quiet as a country grave yard, and returned to his business pursuits. Mr.
Beazley's resignation was followed by the appointment of Luther Herron, who has since kept up the good work, and it is a fact that today there is not a drop of liquor sold in Lancaster.

THAT'S THE SOLUTION.
(Danville Messenger.)

According to the Stanford Journal a local option election will be held in Lincoln county some time in December. The wets, it is alleged, are circulating petitions and receiving many signatures. The county is dry at present, but the wets claim wisdom is being sold everywhere in open violation of the law. It is this their only reason for wanting saloons open, why not get some officers who will do their duty, thus saving expense and annoyance of an election?

PREACHERSVILLE.

Misses Mary Eliza and Kate Holtz-claw, of Gilbert's Creek and Miss Jennie Rodgers, of Cedar Creek, were the attractive guests of the Misses Carpenter. Mrs. John B.
Mershon, of Somerset, who has visited her sister, Mrs. W. P. White, has returned home.

Mrs. Elmer Towler, of Greengburg, Ind., who has been a guest of her mother, Mrs. Wm. Duval, has returned home. Her brother, Owen Duval, and niece, Miss Nora Smith accompanied her.

Joseph R. Blankenship, of Indianapolis, Ind., is visiting friends here and elsewhere in Lincoln.

Miss Emma Boone, of Maywood, spent a week with her aunt Mrs. W.
P. White.

Mrs. J. S. Davis and family of Seech Grove, visited Mr. and Mrs.
J. F. Shaw.

Miss Talitha Bell has been suffering with a painful febrile.

Little Miss Gertrude Adams continues quite ill.

Miss Rotie Jennings, of Rowland is a guest of Miss Katie Payne.
The meeting at the Baptist church continues with much interest shown.
Large crowds in attendance.

Rev. Fred M. Jones, of Bernstadt, is doing some good preaching.

Rev. George A. Joplin, general secretary of the Kentucky Sunday School Association, writes that the people of Louisville are making preparation for at least two thousand October 19-22. Write to state officials at the State Convention, free, 7122 Louisville Trust Building, for a full information. Every Sunday School in the state is entitled to a delegate. Lincoln county should have a large delegation.

Common Colds Must Be Taken Seriously.

For unless cured they sap the vitality and lower the vital resistance to more serious infection. Protect your children and yourself by the prompt use of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and note its quick and decisive results. For coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, bronchitis and affections of the throat and chest and lungs it is an every ready and valuable remedy. Shugars and Tanner.

HARVEY HELM.

Says Democratic Party Must Keep
Its Platform Pledges.

Congressman Harvey Helm was at Democratic headquarters Saturday, says the Louisville Times. He reports the Eighth district in excellent condition for the state ticket, and tendered his services to the Campaign Committee. When asked about his own race next year, he refused to discuss it other than to say that he would at the proper time make his announcement, adding that nothing should be done at the present time to interfere with the election of the splendid state ticket. Mr. Helm stated that the Democratic House at Washington has made it possible to elect a Democratic President next year; that this was done by religiously keeping their platform and campaign pledges, and that he naturally wants to serve under such an administration, when the services of veterans and not raw recruits will be needed. Parties like individuals he said must be on the square. "People are going to elect the Democratic ticket this fall," he said, "because they believe the General Assembly will be democratic, and will, like the Democratic House at Washington, keep the pledges and covenants contained in the platform and that they have made with the people of Kentucky. They are going to give them another try. Should they refuse or fail to make good, it will be a long time before the party will again be instructed with power in this state."

The Danville Messenger Tuesday said of Mr. Helm: Hon. Harvey Helm was here yesterday and received an ovation from his many friends. Mr. Helm has done and is doing splendid work in Congress, and his record is one of which the people are justly proud. He has well in Congress, as his assignment to several important committees will show. He has found several leaks in the war department and his enormous efforts will save Uncle Sam many dollars. Mr. Helm is a good man and is making a clean, useful record.

KING'S MOUNTAIN.

Mr. Arthur Murphy has returned from San Marcos, Texas, to assist his father in moving there. We are sorry to give up our good neighbors but probably our loss is their gain.

Mr. Allen Gilliland and wife, of the southern part of the county are visiting his brother V. C. Gilliland.

Mr. Craig Butt and family have returned to Ludlow after a week's visit with their mother Mrs. Rigney.
Sammy Rigney and family spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives here.

Mrs. John Linthicum is on the sick list.

Quite a number of friends here attended the funeral of Miss Meecia Horton at Waynesburg last Thursday. Miss Horton was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Horton, of Eubanks. She was a good Christian girl and every one who knew her learned to love her. The bereaved family have our greatest sympathy in their time of sorrow.

Rev. Combs and family will move to Science Hill this week where he has been called as pastor to the M. E. church.

King's Mountain graded school entertained Pleasant Point school Friday afternoon by giving a spelling match, both schools claiming the victory.

Miss Elizabeth Dye left Monday to take a position at Danville, in the exchange office.

Emmett Gooch and family have been visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Nora Hayes and Maude Singleton spent Sunday with Mrs. Will Leach.

William Leach and wife will leave in a few days to go to Arizona. Mr.
Leach's health has failed him and he will have to leave his position as operator for a while.

Mr. V. C. Gilliland was elected principal teacher and Miss Lydia McKee assistant teacher in the graded school. Prof. Gilliland succeeds Mrs. Annie Neal as principal.

We are very glad to say that the King's Mountain school is progressing nicely again, and that both teachers are doing their best to make a good and successful school.

J. A. Dean, of Junction City was here on business last Saturday.

Mr. Wallace Walter spent a few days in Stanford last week.

Mrs. G. A. Walter and little daughter Mary have returned from a two weeks visit to Cincinnati.

ously.

For unless cured they sap the vi-
and decisive results. For coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, bron-
and valuable remedy. Shugars and Tanner.

PARENTS AND TEACHERS.

To Meet Next Wednesday To Perfect Organization.

A meeting of the patrons and friends of the graded school will be held in the chapel of the high school building next Wednesday afternoon at 3:15. This meeting is for the purpose of organizing the Parent-Teachers' Association which is for the purpose of securing a more united effort toward educational advancement. This meeting is to emphasize the personal touch and bring about a sympathetic relationship of patron and teacher. There are three classes of the laity who pass criticism upon the public schools.

1.—The chronic fault-finder who finds fault with everything in school town, church and state.

2.—The kicker who is prompted by personal or selfish motives.

3.—The man or woman who is prompted by loyalty to the public school, general interest in the young people or a genuine desire to promote the general welfare.

It is this last class who are most cordially invited to attend and take part in these sessions which are for the good of the community. It is the breeze that keeps the education, atmosphere clean. There is no war on honest criticism therefore, we welcome the opinion of the thoughtful man or woman.

This association is formed not to air personal grievances but to discuss plans for the betterment of the schools and to secure the hearty cooperation of parent and teacher.
The general good is the ultimatum.

SUBURBAN FARM FOR SALE

By authority of Judge L. L. Walker, executor of the will of T. B.
Walker, deceased, we offer for sale privately, a fertile farm of 265 acres, adjoining the city of Lancaster, Ky., on the northeast, which yields abundant crops of all the money making products which are more valuable than other crops because the marketing is much less.

It has a large, new barn and fronts beautifully on Richmond avenue, within the city limits, thus solving the problem of country and city life by combining them into one. A splendid farm, fronting on a concrete walk with the advantage of electric lights, telephone, pavement to churches, postoffice, stores and one of the best schools in the state, is easily worth $30 more per acre than the same kind of land far out in the country. We can sell it as it is, or include a handsome residence which can be connected by an intervening tract of land. The farm can be sold in several tracts.
Call on Hughes & Swinebroad, Real Estate Agts., Lancaster, Ky.

ther particulars and prices.

For bowel complaints in children always give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and castor oil. It is certain to effect a cure and when reduced with water and sweetened is pleasant to take.
No physician can prescribe a better "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success," writes Mrs. M. I. Bashford, Poles-ville, Md. For sale by all dealers.

JUDGE WALKER BETTER.

A telephone message to the Interior Journal just before it went to press Thursday afternoon was that the condition of Judge Lewis L. Walker who is ill at his home in Lancaster of typhoid fever, is much improved. The physicians have succeeded in stopping the hemorrhages which he suffered on Wednesday and which caused his relatives much uneasiness, and he is resting considerably easier. Dr. Wiley, a specialist of Lexington, has been in attendance and has put out encouraging reports.

ELLISBURG.
